Under Section 107 of the Internal Revenue code of 1954, an ordained minister of the gospel is allowed to exclude from taxable income the parsonage rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation, to the extent used by him to rent or provide a home. You should keep an accurate record of your expenditures to rent or provide a home if you wish to avail yourself of this opportunity. Another form will be provided for you at the end of the year for the actual expenditures involved.
